Biography

I grew up in Wald in the Zurich Oberland, not far from the am Bachtel cross-country ski run.

As one of three children, I was taken to ski club training at an early age. When I was 12, I took part in my first biathlon competitions with an air rifle. I progressed very quickly and was soon able to count myself among the top national athletes. During my apprenticeship as a carpenter, I had to overcome the double burden of training and work. It was at this time that I was first admitted to the Swiss-Ski selection group and shortly afterwards to the C squad.

After that, I took part in every major youth and junior event, and achieved some good results. My crowning achievement came in 2020 at the Junior World Championships at home in Lenzerheide. In my last year as a junior, I won bronze in the individual. I made my World Cup debut in Oslo in 2018.

I made a small breakthrough in the 2022/23 season. With seven top-10 results and a 5th place in the mass start in Östersund as my best result, I was able to finish the season in 17th place in the overall World Cup ranking. I even managed to secure 5th place in the mass start ranking.
