The essentials in brief

Travel documents

To enter Switzerland, you need a recognised and valid travel document. This can be a passport or an identity card. In some cases, a visa may be required.

Road fees

If you are travelling in a vehicle, road fees apply for driving on Swiss roads and motorways.

Goods and special cases

You must comply with certain regulations and may have to pay customs duties when crossing the border with goods. Special provisions apply to certain categories of goods (animals, vehicles, internet purchases).

Road fees

Depending on the type and weight of the vehicle, the following fees must be paid before using Swiss roads:

Up to 3.5 tonnes

You must purchase a vignette to use Swiss motorways for motor vehicles and trailers up to 3.5 tonnes. The vignette is available as a sticker or as a practical electronic version, the e-vignette. In both cases, it costs CHF 40.

-  The e-vignette can be purchased at www.e-vignette.ch at any time and from anywhere. It is valid immediately after payment.

Over 3.5 tonnes

A lump-sum heavy vehicle charge (PSVA) applies to foreign vehicles with a total weight of more than 3.5 tonnes.
